My dear Doctor,

I should not have perpetrated the want of presenting you with my ugly phiz, had I not been trut into my head by our mischievous priend Mrs Shaw. Perhaps hawever I may stir within your something of the "memory of Jojs that are part, pleasant and mournful to the soul! It reminds me this moment of a very lovely one whom you thought like June Lecand Lelf, and who has had her Ilace for years in the general assembly of the church of the first born. Will you ever visit "Oarld Inclaid" again? Low guite on Classic ground now along side Zewis College and have a warm bed ready for you every day.
and every mett. You will find that since your with we have become quite scientifie.
most faithfully rows ohn Edgar.

. * the state of the s